Poetical.

From The Atlantic Monthly for February.

AT PORT ROYAL.—1861.

BY J. G. WHITTIER.

The tent-lights glimmer on the land,
The ship-lights on the sea;
The night wind smooths with drifting sand
Our track on lone Tybee.

At last our grating keels outslide,
Our good boats forward swing;
And while we ride the land-locked tide,
Our negroes row and sing.

For dear the boatman holds his gifts
Of music and of song:
The gold that kindly Nature sifts
Among his sands of wrong;

The power to make his toiling days
And poor home-comforts please;
The quaint relief of mirth that plays
With sorrow's minor keys.

Another glow than sunset's fire
Has filled the West with light,
Where field and garner, barn and byre
Are blazing through the night.

The land is wild with fear and hate,
The rout runs mad and fast;
From hand to hand, from gate to gate,
The flaming brand is passed.

The lurid glow falls strong across
Dark faces broad with smiles:
Not theirs the terror, hate, and loss
That lire yon blazing piles.

With oar-strokes timing to their song,
They weave in simple lays
The pathos of remembered wrong,
The hope of better days—

The triumph-note that Miriam sung,
The joy of unchained birds:
Softening with Africs mellow tongue
Their broken Saxon words.

[SONG OF THE NEGRO BOATMAN.]

Oh, praise an' tanks! De Lord he come
To set de people free;
An' massa think it day ob doom,
An' we oh jubilee.
De lord, dat keep de Red Sea waves
He jus' as 'trong as den;
He say de word; we las' night slaves;
To day, de Lord's freemen.
De yam will grow, de cotton blow,
We'll hab de rice an' corn:
Oh, nebber you fear, if nebber you hear
De driver blow his horn!

Ole massa on he trabbles gone;
He leab de land behind:
De Lord's breff blow him furder on,
Like corn-shuck in de wind.
We own de hoe, we own de plow,
We own de hands dat hold;
We sell 'de pig, we sell de cow,
But nebber chile be sold.
De yam will grow, de cotton blow,
We'll hab de rice an' corn:
Oh, nebber you fear, if nebber you hear
De driver blow his horn!

We pray de Lord: he gib us signs
Dat some day we be free;
De Nort-wind tell it to de pines,
De wild-duck to de sea:
We think it when de church bell ring,
We dream it in de dream;
De rice-bird mean it when he sing,
De eagle when he scream.
De yam will grow, de cotton blow,
We'll hab de rice an' corn:
Oh, nebber you fear, if nebber you hear
De driver blow his horn!

We know de promise nebber fail,
An' nebber lie de word;
So, like de 'postles in de jail,
We waited for de Lord:
An' now he open every door,
An' throw away de key;
He think we keb him so before,
We keb him better free.
De yam will grow, de cotton blow,
We'll gib de rice an' corn:
So nebber you fear, if nebber you hear
De driver blow his horn!

So sing our dusky gondoliers;
And with a secret pain,
And smiles that seem akin to tears,
We hear the wild refrain.

We dare not share the negro's trust,
Nor yet his hope deny:
We only know that God is just,
And every wrong shall die.

Rude seems the song each swarthy face,
Flame-lighted, utter still:
We start to think that hapless race
Must shape our good or ill:

That laws of changeless justice bind
Oppressor with oppressed;
And, close as sin and suffering joined,
We march to Fate abreast.

Sing on, poor hearts! your chant shall be
Our sign of blight or bloom—
The Vista-song of Liberty,
Or death-tune of our doom!

THE BIBLE ONE.

There are in the New Testament 205 direct quotations from, and 318 references and allusions to writings, events, and individuals in the Old Testament, without including the prophecies predicted in the Old Testament that are fulfilled in the New unless a special allusion is given to them. Of these 237 are from the Pentateuch, 78 from the historical books. 103 from Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Solomon, and 132 from the prophetical books. These quotations by Christ and his inspired apostles from 38 of the 39 books of the Old Testament show conclusively that the whole of the Old Testament writings are authentic and inspired, however much infidels and semi-infidels may assail certain portions, and wish to exclude them from the sacred canon. The two must stand or fall together

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY FOR MARCH is on our table. Contents; 1. "Christopher North" 5. Choose ye this day whom ye will serve"—poetry. 3 "the Horrors of Saint Domingo."—4. A London Suburb" 5. The Vagabonds"—poetry. 9 Willie Wharton"—a touching Story of Western wilds, complete. 6. "A Call to my Country women" a highly patriotic and eloquent as well as truthful appeal to encourage our country-women in their duties during our present trials—instructing them to suffer as well as to do whatever may be meted out to us by Divine Providence. 7. "the True Church"—poetry. 8. under the Pear Tree"—Part II of a good Story. 9. "The last cruise of the Monitor"—a most graphic and thrilling description of the loss of this noble and historical vessel, with incidents of the bravery and endurance of her noble officers and crew—as well as the heroism of the crew of the Rhode Island, and of all concerned. It is a proud chapter in our country's history and one of the proudest of this eventful war. 10. "Lyrics of the Street"—poetry. 11. "America the Old world"—this is a very valuable article, and treats its subject in so popular a manner that the general reader will find himself, perhaps, for the first time interested in a geological discussion. It gives good reasons for contradicting the common idea that America is the New world, and argues very conclusively, that she is instead, the Old world in reality. This series is to be continued, and we advise all to procure the numbers and follow them through and reap valuable information.

12. "PERICLES AND PRESIDENT LINCOLN." This is a fine classical parallelism of our own troubles and those incident to the organizations of the ancient Republics. The North, as Athens warring against Sparta and the Peloponnesians. Athens the more refined yet the more truly democratic and the most powerful commercially and in every way, as opposed to the Peloponnesians, corresponding to our gulf States, and who were oligarchical, overbearing, yet weak and contemptible, in all progress when compared to Northern Greece. The errors of Pericles and those of our own conduct of the war are significantly compared. 13. "Reviews & Literary Notice." &. &c. Boston: Ticknor and Fields, 135 Washington Street, corner of School Street.

FRANK LESLIE'S LADIES MAGAZINE FOR APRIL is on our Table. This is a very interesting number of this valuable Gazette of Fashion. It contains several engravings illustrative of the literary portions, among them GEN TOM THUMB. The Bridal Chamber. Bride cake, Basket of Fruit, Plate, Cradle &c. &c., and reception at the Metropolitan. These are illustrative of an article in this number, on the General, his discovery, travels, courtship and marriage &c. The Gazette of Fashions is unusually full of press matter on the plates, fashions, and patterns, while these last and the engravings are very full illustrations. Frank Leslie. Publication Office 16 City Hall Square New York.

PETTERSON'S LADIES NATIONAL MAGAZINE FOR APRIL is also on our Table. This Magazine of Fashions is certainly very superior in the superb mezotint and other steel engravings which adorn each number, and also in its beautiful colored Fashion Plates. It has a large and valuable supply of all kinds of Colored Patterns in Embroidery, Crochet &c. The work Table department of this magazine is well said to be unrivalled in variety and style. Household receipts and new and fashionable music, help to complete the valuable attractions of this companion of the Boudoir. Charles J. Petterson, 306 Chestnut Street. Philadelphia.

CURE FOR PIN WORMS.
DR. E. C. GOULD'S
PIN WORM SYRUP
Is the first and only remedy ever offered to the public for the effectual removal of the Anacrides, or Pin Worms, from the human system. The high reputation it has established in the last two years, and the fact that it is fast superseding all other worm remedies, is the best test of its great rebellion.
It affords Relief in twenty-four hours and an Entire Cure is warranted when taken according to directions, which accompany each bottle.
This Syrup is also a most valuable family cathartic, to be always used when physic is required, ESPECIALLY FOR CHILDREN. It corrects the secretions, gives tone to the stomach and bowels, assisting nature in her efforts to restore health. It is PURELY OF VEGETABLE EXTRACTS, AND ALWAYS SAFE AND RELIABLE.

The True Eloquence of Daniel Webster.

A few days ago we published an eloquent extract from the speech of Daniel Webster delivered in the U. S. Senate in January, 1830, in reply to Mr. Hayne, of South Carolina. The following equally eloquent passage by the great statesman, we quote from his admirable oration on Adams and Jefferson, delivered in Faneuil Hall, Boston, August 2, 1862. We earnestly commend it to the careful and thoughtful perusal of avowed and disguised traitors, and trust that it may make an impression upon their guilty hearts:

"And now, fellow citizens, let us not retire from this occasion, without a deep and solemn conviction of the duties which have devolved upon us. This lovely land, this glorious liberty, these benign institutions, the dear purchase of our fathers, are ours; ours to enjoy, ours to preserve, ours to transmit. Generations past, and generations to come, hold us responsible for this sacred trust. Our fathers, from behind, admonish us, with their anxious paternal voices: posterity calls out to us, from the bosom of the future, the world turns hither to its solicitous eye—all, all conjure us to act wisely and faithfully in the relation which we sustain. We can never, indeed, pay the debt which is upon us; but by virtue, by morality, by religion, by the cultivation of every good principle and every good habit, we may hope to enjoy the blessing, through our day, and to leave it unimpaired to our children. Let us feel deeply how much, of what we are and of what we possess, we owe to this liberty, and these institutions of Government.

"Nature has, indeed, given us a soil, which yields bounteously to the hands of industry, the mighty and fruitful ocean is before us, and the skies over our heads shed health and vigor.—But what are lands and seas and skies to civilized man, without society, without knowledge, without morals, without religious culture; and how can these be enjoyed, in all their extent, and all their consequences, under a free government? Fellow citizens, there is not one of us, there is not one of us here present, who does not, at this moment, and at every moment, experience in his own condition, and in the condition of those most near and dear to him, the influence and the benefits of this liberty, and these institutions. Let us then acknowledge the blessing, let us feel it deeply and powerfully, let us cherish a strong affection for it, and resolve to maintain and perpetuate it. The blood of our fathers, let it not have been shed in vain; the great hope of posterity, let it not be blasted. The striking attitude, too, in which we stand to the world around us, a topic to which, I fear, I advert too often, and dwell on too long, cannot be altogether omitted here. Neither individuals nor nations can perform their part well, until they understand and feel its importance, and comprehend and justly appreciate all the duties belonging to it. It is not to inflate national vanity, nor to swell a light and empty feeling of self-importance, but it is that we may judge justly of our situation, and of our own duties, that I earnestly urge this consideration of our position and our character among the nations of the earth. It cannot be denied, but by those who would dispute against the sun, that with America, and in America, a new era commences in human affairs. This era is distinguished by Free Representative Government, by entire religious Liberty, by improved systems of national intercourse, by a newly awakened, and an unconquerably spirit of free inquiry, and by a diffusion of knowledge through the community, such as has been before altogether unknown and unheard of. America, America, our country, fellow-citizens, our own dear and native land is inseparable connected, fast bound up, in future and by fate, with these great interests. If they fall, we fall with them; if they stand, it will be because we have upholden them. Let us contemplate, then, this connection, which binds the prosperity of others to our own; and let us manfully discharge all the duties which it imposes. If we cherish the virtues and the principles of our fathers, Heaven will assist us to carry on the work of human liberty and human happiness. Auspicious omens cheer us. Great examples are before us. Our own firmament now shines brightly upon our path. Washington is in the clear upper sky. Those other stars have now joined the American constellation; they circle around their centre, and the heavens beam with new light. Beneath this illumination, let us walk the course of life, and at its close devoutly commend our beloved country, the common parent of us all, to the Divine Benignity."

And now, the illustrious Webster and the eloquent Clay have also joined that brilliant constellation in the spirit world, the centre of which is the good and immortal Washington.—Their spirits all hover around us, and in their celestial purity are anxiously watching our deeds, and believing that we will be faithful to the great trust which they transmitted to us. He who opposes the administration, in this fearful crisis,—in this tremendous struggle for our nationality,—has illegitimate blood coursing in his veins, and is wickedly recreant in regard to his duty, to God, to his country, his race, and to posterity.

We understand that Ex-Governor Hoppin, Ex-Governor Sprague, Ex-Governor Chas. Jackson, Moses P. Lockwood, George B. Holmes, C. A. Updike, and many others, former supporters of the Conservative Party, have decided to support the whole ticket headed by J. Y. Smith.—Daily Union.

It is gratifying to know that these gentlemen are identifying themselves with the party of Patriots, and why any who assume to be conservative can affiliate with the copperhead party, we cannot imagine.

There has been a real desire on the part of Republicans, to unite with all loyal people. They have invited all such to unite with them, in good faith, but in Newport their overtures have been rejected, mainly through the instrumentality of the "plain farmer" Isaac Lawrence, we suppose. Why does not Mr. Lawrence figure in the ticket, since he establishes the policy of the party, and why after pretending to be very anxious to secure a "straight democratic ticket" does he inspire a policy calculated to elect quasi Republicans to the Legislature?

We are apprehensive that a "plain farmer" is no match in diplomacy for the admirable tactician of the first ward, and the urbane and elegant Statesman of recent Congressional experience.

The election of every member of the legislature in opposition to the nominees of a party which solicits the co-operation of all loyal citizens, will be regarded at South and South West, a victory of the sympathizers with Seymour, Wood, and Brooks. The copperhead journals of the doubtful region known as the border states, are all anticipating a complete overthrow of the Administration in this state. Let it be our duty to see that they are mistaken. Let us show them that the old patriotic fires burn as fiercely as ever, in the true hearts of our loyal people.

Brothers! Patriots! let us urge you to work without ceasing, until the going down of the sun on Wednesday next, and then the glad shout will ring from the Atlantic to the far off prairies, of victory for the right!

Resolved, That we regard a vigorous prosecution of the war as an indispensable measure for the preservation of the Union, and that, without regard to differences of party or opinion, we will make common cause with all loyal citizens, to support the constituted authorities in carrying it on, and to counterwork the efforts of designing and traitorous men to bring those authorities into disrepute.—Republican Resolutions.

What more, or what less can any patriot ask than this resolution, as explanatory of the patriotic desire of Republicans, to unite all opposition to the principles of the great rebellion?

The so called Conservatives have declined to meet us upon this basis, but have affiliated with the democratic party: Will the people support them in their disloyal determination?

THE DAILY NEWS has a campaign editor who judging from the tone and substance of his editorials, has been sitting for the past two weeks at the feet of the Providence Journal. His insinuations against Hon. William C. Cozzens will fall harmless like rebs, shot on our iron-clads."—Prov. Press.

The Providence Press must have been reading over our old advertisements, under the impression that they were recent campaign articles, to have arrived at the conclusion that we have been sitting at the feet of the most lame duck old foggy loyal sheet in existence, that to have a shadow cast upon our loyalty by association with men who in this dark hour of our country's peril, affiliate with the enemies of its Government.

A two-year old handbill, setting forth that there are but two parties,—one the friends and the other the enemies of our country,—has been brought forth and to do duty in the present campaign; of course meaning that the Republicans are the friends, and their opponents, however loyal in their antecedents, the enemies of the country.

We trust that every one will ponder upon the sentiment expressed in the "two year old handbill." It is true, and challenges refutation. Every man, who fails to sustain his government now, is an enemy to his country, even if his antecedents are as good as those of Alexander H. Stevens, the Vice President of the bogus collapsable Confederacy.

New Jersey.—It seems that the Governor of New Jersey, as well as the Governor of New York, recalcitrate a little at the peace programme, developed in Connecticut and elsewhere. In a speech in the New Jersey Senate on Monday, the democratic leader of that body gave the following authoritative announcement:—

"The present worthy incumbent of the gubernatorial chair means not only to sustain the general government, but to put down all appeal to other than legal means for real or imaginary evils. We proclaim ourselves a law-abiding people—Upon that idea the present dominant party of this State came into power and upon it they expect to retain their supremacy. Our courts are open, and will redress grievances—our ballot-boxes are our remedy, and they will prove effective. Let no man dream of any purpose on the part of the Executive of this State—or of any true patriot—to seek remedies outside of the law. As long as laws are upon the statute-book, or those of the general government exist, they must be obeyed. This is the only true course; the only one to safety and union. We must stand by the Constitution and the laws, and they will stand by us—of what ever faith"

A late number of the Richmond Enquirer has a philosophical article upon the bad habit of eating three meals per day. The editor argues that two meals are amply sufficient, adding that under the present condition of affairs, and the shortness of provisions, "it is nearly as bad to grow fat as to get rich on the Confederacy."—Boston Paper.

The citizen of the Southern Confederacy, who will insist upon growing fat, when flour is $65 a barrel, and codfish are $5 each, is no better than an "abolitionist." He is giving aid and comfort to the enemy by increasing the rakedness of the land. It is a sincere cause for regret that the rebel sympathizers horsebeats could not be sent beyond the Federal lines, and subjected to the hardships that their brethren are called upon to endure.

A jeweller tells a story about the wife of a shoddy gentleman—suddenly raised from poverty to affluence—who was spending a good deal for ornaments in jewelry. The jeweller had sold the woman a diamond ring of great value, but observing as she tried to force it over a remarkably red and knotty finger, that the ring was a trifle too small, he said she had better take a large one. "No matter," replied the complacent parvenue, with a musing naiveté, "this will do—I don't expect my hands will be so large after a little while."

REPUBLICAN UNION CAUCUS LAST NIGHT.—A meeting of the Republican Union party was held last evening at Bull's Hall. The meeting was called to order by Joseph Anthony, Esq.

Wm. S. Nichols was unanimously chosen President, and J. A. Peckham, Jr. Sect'y.

On motion a committee was chosen to nominate a Senator and five Representatives for the Gen. Assembly.

During the absence of the committee R. R. Hazard, Jr. Esq., by request addressed the meeting, on the Political and Sanitary condition of Missouri and the West.

The committee on nominations then returned with the following ticket:

For Senator
EDMUND TWEEDY.

1st Representative
CHAS. E. LAWTON.

2d Representative
HENRY BEDLOW.

3d Representative
R. R. HAZARD, JR.

4th Representative
DAN'L T. SWINBURNE.

5th Representative
WM. B. SHERMAN.

The Committee were then authorized to fill all vacancies that might occur among the Nominees.

WM. S. NICHOLS, Chairman.

"ONLY PLAYING SO."—We are informed that one of the candidates on the C. A. C. and D. ticket, in a recent conversation with a Republican who was a personal friend of the said candidate, remarked that the only hope of carrying the State against the Republicans, lay in working upon the feelings of the people in reference to the enforcement of the Conscription Act. Why, remarked the Republican, you profess to be loyal don't you? O yes replied the candidate, we do, and we mean to be, only we just say so, in order to get votes—we are only playing so.

How freemen of Rhode Island can you bestow your suffrages upon a party or a man who seeks to obtain them by fraud. Can such men be trusted in places of responsibility at such a time?

It must not be. Let us arouse ourselves, and thoroughly cleanse our State garner, and show to the world that the loyalty of Rhode Island is not a conditional but a positive one, and thus rebuke those in our midst, who would dare to attempt the audacious game of luring people to vote with them, by holding out the terrible and guilty offer of nullification and disloyalty and in fact of avowed resistance to a Constitutional Law.

THE DEATH OF LIEUT. NICHOLAI.—We noticed several days since, the death of this noble son of Newport while fighting for his country, and we take much pleasure in presenting the following letters to our readers, speaking as they do of one who was a general favorite (for his many virtues) in our community:

CAMP 1ST., R. I. CAVALRY,
March 19th 1863.

Hon. Henry Y. Cranston:

Sir.—It is with the deepest regret that I am called upon to announce to you, the death of Henry L. Nicholai, 2d Lieut. of Co. M 1st R. I. Cavalry. He was killed during the latter part of the Cavalry engagement at Kelly's Ford, on the afternoon of the 17th inst., by a solid shot which struck him in the lower part of the neck, causing instant death.

Lieut. Nicholai had taken an active and very credible part, in every engagement through the day, in every time of danger he was at his post, and many are the praises bestowed on him for his courage and gallantry on the field. He is the only officer of ours known to have been killed on the 17th, but it has cast a gloom over the entire corps. By his death we have lost a brave and efficient officer and a beloved companion: he was ever prompt in the discharge of his duty and kind and gentle in his demeanor. In behalf of the officers and men of the regiment I extend to the family and friends of Lieut. Nicholai, our heartfelt condolence for their loss, with the assurance that we will share with them the affliction.

Very Respectfully,
J. ROGERS, Corp. 1st R. I. Cav.

P. S. His body was brought off the field, but up to the present time we have not learned what was done with it.

An inventory of his effects will be taken and forwarded to you, and we will await for the decision of his friends for their disposition.

He had on his person a considerable sum of money which is in safe hands. J. ROGERS.

HEADQUARTERS, 1st R. I. Cav., March 19, '63.

Mr. L. F. Nicholai, Sir:

I feel it a duty, altho' a painful one, to write you giving you all the particulars in regard to your sons death (which you doubtless have been informed of before this will reach you) in my possession. A detail of all the available officers and men was made on Sunday evening March 15th, to be ready to move at 8 o'clock a. m., on Monday, each man to be furnished with four days rations and 12 lbs of forage for his horse, with 40 rounds of cartridges. A large force, composed of Cavalry, Infantry and Artillery, started for we know not where. Monday night we staid at Morrisville, about three miles from the river where we crossed, at Kelly's Ford the next morning commencing about 9 a. m., to cross, the R. I. Regt., in front. The passage to the Ford had been obstructed by the enemy, by felling trees, consequently our descent to the river and crossing, rendered it very difficult, and not without some loss, as we were obliged to cross under a galling fire from the enemy, who were sheltered by rifle pits, who we soon dislodged from their hiding places. After a sufficient number crossed to engage them, we met the enemy in force about 3 miles from the river, where we had an open field, and a hand to hand fight, we received their charge four times, repulsing them every time, the fourth we drove them some mile or so. As we were bringing our men into a position to charge the third time, Henry was struck by a piece of a shell, taking off his left shoulder. He commanded the 2d platoon in our squadron, my Orderly and one of the other Sergt. rushed up to him at once caught his horse. He died not breathing after they got to him, which was nearly as soon as he fell, they put him upon a horse (after removing everything from his pockets and rolling him in his blanket) and carried him to the rear behind our guns, to where the ambulances were, and gave him in charge of the ambulance corps, they said that they would take care of him and bring him in, and we thought we had his body with us, and did not know the contrary, until we went back to camp, by some mistake or mis-management it was left behind. I sent two sergeants yesterday to see what they could learn about it, but could not get any information which was satisfactory to myself, the Medical Director at Headquarters, sent me word that a flag of truce was going over in a day or two, and they would try and get some information about him, if they could. I hardly think that his body was brought off the field, I have picked up everything and Capt. Gould has them in his hands for safe keeping. He took a list of them, and said he would forward it to you by the next mail. He packed up his things with more than usual care before he left camp. He was not at all disfigured in his face, his arm broke by the skin underneath. He told me the evening before that he had just received letters from his father and sister.

Allow me in behalf of the members of Co. M 1st R. I. Cavalry, of which your son was a member and officer, to extend to you our kindest regards, with the assurance that we deeply sympathize with you in your deep sorrows, and with all who are called to mourn the loss of one who had (in so short a time as it had been our privelge to know him) entwined himself in our affections, so that we had learned to esteem him as an officer and love him as a friend and brother.

From your humble servant,
J. F. ANDREWS, Lt. Com.

L. F. NICHOLAI, Esq. Newport, R. I.

A correspondent sends us the following cure for Diptheria which, it will be seen, has been practically tested:

I feel it my duty to publish to the world a simple remedy for the Diptheria. Apply cool linen wet compresses to the throat and chest.—Have them several thicknesses, with dry woolen covering over them. Change them whenever they get warm or dry, according to the severity of the case. Give the cloths a thorough rinsing every time in fresh water, and at the same time let the patient drink freely of Speer's Sanburni wine; if they should be chilly, make the wine hot, otherwise drink it cold. Also bathe the patient in the morning all over at least one hour before eating, as cool as he can bear without causing a chill. Be sure and wipe thoroughly dry. I had four children all sick at one time. I treated them as above; one had the fever higher than the rest; we gave the wine and bathed according as the fever raged. Two of them had it so bad, their mouths were raw and bled.—Speer's wine is not to be obtained at all times, so much of it being purchased for the hospitals in Europe as well as this country, I would advise every family to have a bottle in the house at once ready for use.

New York, Nov. 1862. P. COOPER.

Duty of the Democratic Party.

Chief Justice Caton of Illinois has addressed a long letter to Governor Seymour of New York, on the relations of the different sections and parties to the war, and the duty of the democratic party at this juncture. The following extract will show the position taken by the Judge:—

"These provocations, in connection with the known state of feeling pervading the whole community South, render any hope that they will embrace the democratic offer to return and resume the status quo ante bellum, entirely futile at the present moment. They will, with bitter contempt, spurn this offer now, let it come from whom it may. Such is the present state of feeling in the Southwest as well as in the Southeast. Victories must be won before they will listen to reason from any party, and accept reunion on any terms. Were the democrats in power to-day, they must win victories before they could save the Union. If these victories are won while the abolitionists rule, may not the South accept peace from us when we attain the control, quite as readily as if won under democratic auspices?

"What shall be done in this contingency? The answer of ninety-nine in the hundred of those who voted the democratic ticket at the October and November elections, is and will be: The war must be prosecuted earnestly and to the last—not to conquer the rebellion. If a ten years' war is necessary, rather than give up the Union, they accept it—sorrowfully, it is true, but earnestly. We hope and believe that whatever the fortunes of war may be this winter, and especially if success shall attend our arms, and if Mr. Lincoln can be brought under democratic influences, or even if the South can be brought to believe that conservative principles have acquired such an ascendency in the North as to admit a peace on the old basis and protect them in their fair constitutional rights, then peace is possible after the 4th of March, when the new Congress will come into being. To render this possible—to excite a reasonable hope that the South will return to the Union on the old basis—it is indispensable that they should be disabused of the opinion that the democratic party is a peace party on the basis of separation. Whatever this or that democrat may think or feel about the prosecution of the war, certain it is that a vast majority of the old democratic party—that is to say, the Douglas portion of it, and all of those who have formerly voted with the republicans, but at the late elections voted with us, at least in West, and no doubt the same is true in the East, are fixed in the determination that the war must be prosecuted till the rebellion is put down, or till those in revolt will submit to the government of the constitution. Indeed, this follows as a necessary consequence upon the determination not to submit to a dismemberment of the Union—which, as before stated, must be looked upon as a settled question, at least in the West."

The Demand for Five-twenties.—The fact that the ways and means act passed at the late session requires the legal tender notes to be offered before the 1st of July for conversion into five-twenty bonds, causes much of the demand for the latter. The New York Evening Post of Wednesday says:

"We are able to state, on the very best authority, that up to last evening no less than twenty millions of the new five-twenties had been subscribed for, and that applications today are pouring in from all parts of the country to such an extent that the entire force of the department is insufficient to respond to the unprecedented public demand."

"Greenbacks will go down when you go down," said a gallant Indiana Colonel to one of his men whose mind had been somewhat poisoned by the treasonable teachings of copperheadism. "The blue-coats and greenbacks are in the same boat, and must sink or swim together." "Then," said the soldier, "a discount on greenbacks is a discount on us." "That's it exactly," said the Colonel, "and as long as we win victories in the field, greenbacks will be worth a premium."

On and after the first of July, all letters deposited in the Post Office for mailing on which the postage is short, instead of being sent forward as now, will be kept and treated as if there were no stamps on them. This is an important fact, which the public will do well to impress upon their minds. After that time the postage on drop letters will be two cents, instead of one as now.

The New York Times has the following unpleasant paragraph:—

"It is understood that the vigilant librarian of Congress has sent a demand, by epistle, to a member of the last House from a New York district, for the immediate return of two hundred volumes belonging to his trust, The rebinding of the books will not prevent their identification."

Died.

Valuable Real Estate in Newport to Lease or For Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER will leave his Shop, No. 112 Thames Street, a first rate place for a large shoe manufactory or other extensive business. In addition to the store there is a sewing-room, leather-room and other rooms large enough to seat fifty hands, and a counting-room or office will be put up in the rear if required. The situation is the most central in Newport, and presents a rare opportunity to engage in any large manufacturing business. It is within three minutes walk of the New York boats and the Railroad.

If not leased I will sell the above estate at a price that will make a good investment. Half it should pay for the greater part of the amount to remain on bond and mortgage for a number of years.

mch 27—3m BENJAMIN B. ALMAN.

CHEAP GOODS.

THE SUBSCRIBER offers a lot of old style dress goods, remnants of various kinds of material, Ribbons wide and narrow, Childrens gloves and woolen Hose, Dress Trimmings, Buttons &c., &c., at less than old prices. The sale will continue through the present week, those inclined to economy will find this a good opportunity for purchasing substitutes for more expensive goods.

FROM FARRAGUTS FLEET.

PAVING OF THE TROOPS.

Stonewall Jackson.

GIFT ENTERPRISES.

NEW YORK, March 28.

(Telegram special.) Late last night the telegraph brought an answer to the request of the Government for information from the Mississippi. According to this dispatch the only vessel of Farragats fleet which has been heard of by our forces opposite Vicksburg, is the Hartford. Rebel telegrams from Vicksburg however say that the Monongahela passed Port Hudson in her company.

The Treasury Department is now putting about $4,000,000 a day into the hands of the Paymaster of the army. Efforts will be made to furnish the money as fast as the preparations are ready for it, until every soldier is paid up to March.

There are rumors that Stonewall Jackson is working up the Shenandoah. If true this would account for the movement of the enemy at Banks and United States fords to prevent the crossing of any portion of Hookers army and also for the continued presence of rebel cavalry along the lines of the defenses of Washington to prevent scouting.

Intelligence has been received to-day of the appearance of rebels in the vicinity of Vienna. Information has been received of the presence of a small body of rebel cavalry in the vicinity of Bull Run this morning.

The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that Gift enterprises are lotteries within the meaning of the tax law, and that their managers are liable to a tax of one thousand dollars apiece.

Rebels in Kentucky.

PROMPTNESS OF THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

NEW YORK, March 28.

The Cincinnati correspondent of the Tribune dating 24th inst., says: Ten thousand rebels made their appearance day before yesterday at Somerset and have been slowly advancing northward until to-day at five o'clock.

The telegraph operator at Danville, Boyle County, closed his office saying: "The rebels are within a short distance of the town. The Kentucky river is so swollen that it will be hardly possible for them to cross for a week, before which time there will be troops enough there to successfully resist the attempt. Our Cavalry got after the Rebel Clark, yesterday and drove him through Mount Sterling, and beyond Owingsville. There is no excitement here whatever. Nearly every boat at the landing has been pressed into government service, and others are being seized as fast as they arrive. It is believed General Burnside will soon take the field.

Within the last ten days forty millions have been paid to the army, and within another week's time, all the soldiers will have been provided for that purpose up to March 1. Hereafter if the troops are not paid off regularly, it will be the fault of some other department or bureau than that of the treasury.

A Stafford Court House correspondent writing on the 25th says: Some forty rebels disguised as civilians were discovered yesterday hovering near our line of sentinels and were captured. They were nearly all armed with revolvers but whether they were regular Confederate soldiers or guerrillas banded together for some special purpose has not yet transpired. Some of our pickets were fired upon and one man was wounded recently. Some days since a cavalry picket was captured, it was presumed by a guerilla party. Such parties are constantly in our neighborhood and our cavalry has suffered not a little from them.

SITUATION OF GEN. BANKS.

NO CAUSE FOR APPREHENSION REGARDING HIS ARMY.

NEW YORK, March 28.

The statement in certain Eastern papers in relation to a supposed disaster to Gen. Banks must have been furnished by the same person who endeavored to sell similar information to the agent of the Associated Press in this city some 10 days since. It is well to state that a despatch dated, 15th inst from Gen. Banks himself reports himself in good health and making different mention of affairs than a disaster would have brought.

POSTSCRIPT.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS.

NEW YORK, March 28.

Special to the morning papers contain the following: The Gov't will soon issue a general order with relation to the disposition of property seized in the insurrectionary states. It will clearly define the rights and liabilities, as to all new purchases thus taken and will be faithfully carried out, increase the revenue and effectually prevent speculators at speculation, whether on the part of U. S. officers or of private money mongers. The credit of introducing this important measure which affects the disposition of the large quantity of cotton seized in the West is mainly due to the efforts of Solicitor William Whiting of the War Department.

Boston merchants representing large contracts with the government are at present in the city, for the purpose of adjusting their claims with the respective bureaus.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE!

Do not rashed add to your sufferings in being deceived by the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of

FOREIGN AND NATIVE QUACKS,

who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and less as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, long obsolete, unknown; not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their imposition assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by through false certificates and references, and recommendations of their medicines by the dozen, who cannot exposure contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effects of different herbs and plants, and sell for all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cures," and those not killed, constitution dilapidated for life.

QUACK NOSTRUM MAKERS,

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS,

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon Mercury, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specific, Antidote, &c., both relying upon its effects in curing a few in a hundred, it is immaterial in variously disguised or labeled, but it is not long is said of the balance; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years, until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT,

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the [illegible] these among them who will prepare themselves, contradicting giving no mercy to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "special fee" may be obtained for professedly curing, or "the dollar" or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and needlessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

GREAT INDIAN REMEDY

FOR FEMALES.

Dr. Mattison's Indian Emmenagogue.

This celebrated Female Medicine, possessing virtues unknown of anything else of the kind, and proving effectual after all others have failed, is designed for both married and single ladies, and is the very best thing known for the purpose, as it will bring on the monthly visitor in cases of obstruction, from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain.

OVER 2000 BOTTLES

have now been sold

without a single failure, when taken as directed, and without the least injury to health in any case. ☞ It is put up in bottles of three different strengths, with full directions for using, and sent by express, closely sealed, to all parts of the country.

PRICES—Full strength, $10; half strength, $5; quarter strength, $3 per bottle.

☞ Remember! This medicine is designed expressly for OBSTINATE CASES, which all other remedies of the kind have failed to cure; also that it is warranted as represented IN EVERY INSTANCE, or the price will be refunded.

☞ BEWARE OF IMITATIONS! None genuine and warranted unless purchased directly of Dr. M., cor'r office. ☞ Accommodations for Ladies wishing to room in the city a short time for treatment.

Dr. Mattison's Diuretic Compound,

For Acute and Chronic Gonorrhœa.

This new remedy contains neither Balsam, Copaiva Spirits of Nitre, Cubebs, Turpentine, or any other nauseous drugs, but is an elegant vegetable liquid, pleasant to the taste and smell, grateful to the stomach, cooling, cleansing and healing in its operation and speedily allaying all heat and irritations in the urinary passage. You, therefore, who have been swallowing down Balsam Copaiva, either in capsules or mixtures, for months in succession, until with pale face and disordered stomach your breath and clothes are filled with its vile odor; throw away the disgusting mixtures and send for a bottle of this New Remedy, which will not only cure you at once, but at the same time it will cleanse the system from the injurious effects of the various mixtures you have been taking so long.

☞ ONE BOTTLE, WHICH LASTS A WEEK, WILL OFTEN EFFECT A PERMANENT CURE.—Price $2,00.

Dr. Mattison's Anti-Syphilitic Syrup,

For Constitutional Syphilis

No remedy ever discovered has done what has been achieved by this. Under its use every form of constitutional syphilitic taint is speedily cured, and in a few weeks the subtle poison is completely eradicated from the system, and health and strength are permanently restored.

☞ It was this remedy that cured in a few weeks a gentleman from the South, then stopping at Newport, and for which he presented Dr. M. with $150 besides his bill, after having been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York for FIVE YEARS.

One bottle, which lasts a month, will often effect a perfect cure. Price, $10; half size, $5.

Dr. Mattison's Nerve Invigorator,

For Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Confusion of Thought, Loss of Memory, Irritable Temper, Universal Apprehensions, Despondency and Melancholy, which may end in Loss of Reason.

This new remedy for that fearful train of mental and physical evils arising from secret excesses, and secret habits of the young, is composed of the most soothing strengthening and invigorating medicines to be found in the whole Vegetable Kingdom, which, in combination, form the most perfect antidote for this obstinate and distressing class of maladies ever yet discovered.—It has now been sent to nearly every State in the Union, relieving the untold sufferings of hundreds who have never seen the inventor, restoring them to comparative health, strength and happiness. Price—Quart bottle, which lasts a month, $10; half size, $5.

☞ These four GREAT REMEDIES are the result of over twenty years' study and practice, and are now prepared they are known to be the right for their respective purposes, and I am therefore induced to make them public for the mutual benefit of myself and the sick, who otherwise would never avail themselves of their benefits. They are all warranted as represented, in every respect, or the price will be refunded.

☞ They are not sold ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE FOR SPECIAL DISEASES, near No. 28 Union street, Providence, R. I., and sent by express, secure from observation, to all parts of the United States.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

☞ It has been estimated that over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are paid to swindling quacks annually in New England alone; and that, too, without any benefit to those who pay it. All this comes from trusting, willow hoping, to men who are alike destitute of honor, character or skill and whose only recommendation is their own false and extravagant assertions in praise of themselves. The only way to avoid imposition is to take no man's word, no matter what his pretensions are, but MAKE INQUIRY. It will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are.

Dr. M. will send free, by enclosing one stamp as above, a Pamphlet on DISEASES OF WOMEN, and on Private Diseases generally; giving full information, with the most unbiased references and testimonials without which no advertising physician, or medicine of this kind is deserving of ANY CONFIDENCE WHATEVER.

☞ Orders by mail promptly attended to. Write your address plainly, and direct to DR. MATTISON as above.

THE SPECIFIC PILL.

A CERTAIN REMEDY FOR

Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, and Genital Irritability in either Sex.

This Malady, the terrible consequences of which are too well known to require more than a bare allusion to them, is one of the most insidious, and therefore dangerous, of all the long catalogue of human ills. It saps the very springs of life, rapidly undermines the constitution, and sinks the unhappy victim into imbecility and a premature grave! From one to six boxes of the SPECIFIC PILL are sufficient to effect a permanent cure in the most AGGRAVATED CASES, whether Constitutional, or arising from Abuse or Excess.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

"We believe it to be, in the treatment of spermatorrhea, as near a SPECIFIC as any medicine can be."—B. Keith, M. D.—[Am. Jour. of Medical Science.]

"I have found them all that could be desired. Their effect HAS BEEN TRULY WONDERFUL. I used them in a case of Spermatorrhea of long standing which has been under treatment for years. I think three boxes will complete the cure."—E. P. Dunlap, M. D.

This is not a Homœopathic Remedy, nor is there any mercury or other deleterious ingredient combined with it.

A SURE CURE FOR THESE DISTRESSING COMPLAINTS IS NOW MADE KNOWN IN A

"Treatise on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations."

Published by DR. O. PHELPS BROWN.

The prescription was furnished him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, although he never was a believer in Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Pschycology, &c. This remarkable remedy has cured everybody who has tried it, never failing in a single case. It is equally sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia; and the ingredients may be found in any drug store. Those who are afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, or Asthma, may also be cured by the use of my Herbal Preparations, which are charged with electro-magnetic properties, and an earth or atomic atmosphere is continually emanating from them, in consequence of the positive and negative repulsion of its atomical electro-magnetical principles, thereby rendering their efficacy truly wonderful in all cases of Lung Complaints. I will send this valuable prescription free to any person on receipt of their name.

A CHALLENGE AND A REWARD.

$500 REWARD.

I beg leave to inform my friends and the community, that from recent arrangements made by me, I NOW offer the above reward in good faith, which shall be paid in cash to any chemist or physician, of good and responsible standing in the State, who, on due analysis and satisfactory evidence, can find anything in the BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, &c., &c., NOW for sale by me as pure, other than is found in all PURE, GENUINE and UNADULTERATED ARTICLES.

Knowing, from experience, that our citizens in general labor under the impression, with good cause, that pure liquors cannot be had, I, after much pains, studious investigation, and from the reliable source with whom I NOW contract for my supplies in these articles, do stake my reputation as a man, my integrity as a merchant, that if the liquors NOW sold by me as pure "are not so," then none can be had from the vineyards in France, or from any part of the world. As a proof of my sincerity, I challenge chemical contradiction, and invite all to come and test for themselves, when they will learn that NOW, "if never before," pure liquors can be purchased in Newport, by bottle or measure, for medicinal or family purposes, and as cheap as in any other place in these United States.

WM. ALDERSON, Newport, R. I.

N. B.—The main inducement for all to give me a call is, that my figure for the genuine article is rather less, therefore, than is NOW charged for the handsome labelled bottled compounds so extensively sold all over country. Mch 30 1y

GALVANIZED IRON COFFINS.

The subscribers have become agents of the patent GALVANIZED IRON COFFIN, a new article finished in the most beautiful manner and made of what has proved by years of experience to be the most impenetrable of all materials.

This article in shape and outward appearance resembles a highly finished rosewood coffin. It is much less awkward, in appearance lighter, more efficient and easier handled than the cast iron coffins which have been in use for several years.

Miscellaneous.

The "Counsellor"

IS THE NAME of a new Cooking Stove that is for sale at No. 221 Thames street, opposite Perry Mill. This stove is constructed on purely scientific principles. It has a hot air lock in which the air becomes powerfully heated, thence passing directly through the oven, carrying off all the fumes and smokes, supplying an immense amount of heat and making it the most perfect baker in the market. It also has a patent warm and cold air draft for economy of fuel, the whole with the beauty of design and strength of finish, making it the most desirable stove ever offered to the public; also the

CONSTITUTION RANGE

The most perfect five hole Range in the market, every one of which are warranted, or no sale. I have now in operation in my house, in which I have baked bread in 8 minutes. Everybody is invited to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

N. B.—Particular attention paid to repairing the McGregor stoves, no farmers.

CURE THAT COUGH OF YOURS.

Use the best, Surest, and cheapest Remedy the world has ever produced.

ONLY 13 & 25 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S

GREAT COUGH REMEDY.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is warranted if used according to the directions, to cure in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM is prepared with all the requisite care and skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient,—warming, searching and effective; can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM has been used by the public for over 18 years, and has acquired its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it, to their afflicted friends and other.

MOST IMPORTANT.—MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE.—SAVE YOUR MONEY!!!—Do not be persuaded to purchase articles at 18 to 31, which do not contain the virtues of a 13 ct. Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is as great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 13 cts., and in large bottles at 25 cts., and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Store-keepers at 13 cts., and in larger bottles at 25 cts.

TO THE LADIES.—The celebrated DR. L. DIX particularly invites all who need a Medical or Surgical adviser, to call at his Rooms, No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass., which they will find arranged for their special accommodation.

Dr. DIX having devoted over twenty years to this particular branch of the treatment of all diseases peculiar to females, it is now conceded by all (both in this country and in Europe) that he excels all other known practitioners in the safe, speedy and effectual treatment of all female complaints.

His medicines are prepared with the express purpose of removing all diseases, such as debility, weakness, unnatural suppressions, enlargements of the womb, also, all discharges which flow from a morbid state of the blood. The Doctor is now fully prepared to treat in his peculiar style, both medically and surgically, all diseases of the female sex, and they are respectfully invited to call at

No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston.
